UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

No. 03-20427
Judge Breen

J. DANIEL BREEN
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
WD. OF TN. MEMPHIS

JERRY LYNN GALLOWAY

ORDER

This court sentenced the defendant to two years of probation on February 8, 2005. As a special condition of probation, the defendant was required to participate in the Home Detention Program for eight months. The defendant has requested her probation officer to allow her to attend the Friday, November 11, and the Sunday, November 13, sessions of the Church of God in Christ convention presently being conducted in Memphis. This are all-day sessions. The probation officer has denied this request except for three hours on Friday. The government has no objection to Ms. Galloway attending these two all-day sessions.

It appears to the court that the defendant's request is reasonable and should be granted. Therefore, it is ORDERED that the defendant is allowed to attend the sessions of the COGIC convention on Friday, November 11, and Sunday, November 13. It is further ORDERED that her home detention is extended for two days.

This November 10, 2005.
